DEL Acquired by Cargotec

DEL Equipment (UK) Limited, the UK's leading manufacturer of tailifts for commercial vehicles has been fully acquired by the Hiab division of the Cargotec Corporation, which also owns ZEPRO.

ZEPRO, the world's leading cantilever and slider tailift manufacturer, will be promoting the DEL products through the ZEPRO export channels around the world. DEL will in turn promote the ZEPRO products through their network in the UK. This move will strengthen further Hiab's position as the global market leader in the tailift industry.

DEL would like to confirm to all customers the further continuation of these products and services and to provide the solution to all their lifting needs.

For further information, please contact the DEL team on 01993 708811.
